Commuter Services appoints staff

Harrisburg, Pa. – Commuter Services of South Central Pennsylvania today announced it has promoted Kay Leicht to Marketing Outreach Assistant and selected Vanessa Stinson as the Programs Coordinator.

A resident of Dover, York County, Leicht is assisting in outreach to the region's employers and commuters to encourage use of commuter options. She has been serving as Programs Coordinator for Commuter Services.

Stinson, a resident of Red Lion, York County, is managing the regional rideshare database and overseeing administration of Commuter Services programs.

Commuter Services provides free services that promote commuter alternatives to reduce traffic congestion and improve air quality in Adams, Dauphin, Cumberland, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry and York counties.
